

WHO... OPEN POSITION	Volunteer History Docent for Cemetery Tours – History or Art Majors, Actors. People who love the history of Jackson, MI!
WHAT... OPPORTUNITY ENTAILS	Give historic, guided tours through Jackson’s oldest cemetery, Mt. Evergreen Cemetery. Share history about some of Jackson’s famous families. This is a favorite event for many in the Jackson, MI community. Tours are physical walks on a dirt path, up and down hills. More info: https://bit.ly/JXNCemTour
WHEN... TIMING	Cemetery Tours will take place on October 19th, 2022. Multiple tour times: 6pm & 7pm.  Additional information for your arrival and departure times to be confirmed when speaking with our volunteer coordinator. We’ll also share the tour scripts and discuss available costumes from the museum at this time.
WHY... WE NEED YOUR HELP	Our community loves to hear and see Jackson’s history. Volunteers enable the Ella Sharp Museum to make these cemetery tours possible. Reenacting characters from the past shows how history is alive. Besides, life needs more to offer than what’s on a digital screen!
WHERE...	Cemetery Tours will be given at Mt. Evergreen Cemetery, 1047 Greenwood Ave, Jackson, MI 49203.
HOW... NEXT STEPS	Contact, our volunteer coordinator, Toneka Smith, Tonekas@ellasharp.org , Phone: 517.787.2320  Volunteers will work with the museum’s development and education departments for training and schedules.
